2. Mahila Aam Sabha (MAS)

The planning phase of Mahila Aam Sabhas begins with the influential role of village motivators and facilitators of FNGO at the village level. PROCESS HIGHLIGHTS

(2015-2016)

Social Mobilization

Tehri Division, Thatyur of Uttarakhand Decentralized Watershed Development Project is a remote area of Tehri District. Due to its remoteness, the area has been declared by the Central Govt. as a backward area and the people have been categorized under Other Backward Castes. The main livelihood of the people in the area is agriculture and animal rearing. The area is known for its unseasonal vegetables such as Peas, Potato, Beans, Radish, Capsicum as also milk and milk products. However, due to remoteness of the area, lack of awareness and proper market linkages the complete sector is functioning in an unorganized manner and, as a result, all the people of the area are not in a position to reap the benefits of their rich agricultural production. Though the area enjoys a rich culture and agriculture harvest yet women have to suffer drudgery and are not able to come forward and have their say in the areas and decisions affecting their lives.

The project was initiated in the division with the process of social mobilization and institutional building. Since the main focus of the project is on empowerment of women, the field staff of FNGO made their best efforts to persuade women to come forward and participate in regular project meetings and other affairs of the project. Despite all good efforts the attendance of women in the meetings was always thin and negligible. The women would always make one excuse or the other on the pretext of their engagement in their agricultural activities and household chores.

With regular persuasion, the things have now changed and women have begun to show their presence in several project meetings particularly the Mahila Aam Sabhas. Today they have become proactive and they themselves fix the dates for the meeting and arrange for its organization. As the things stand today, Thatyur Division has emerged with maximum women participation with a divisional annualized average of 54%. Interestingly, 83% of women specific issues raised in Mahila Aam Sabhas have been incorporated in Gram Panchayat Watershed Development Plans of the division which stands a testimony to the empowerment of women in the area.

Cluster Farming

Inspired by the cultivation of turmeric and ginger crops by the Farmer groups in Gram Panchayat Jaintoli Malli, various farmers have come together and formed Farmer groups and have put their hands together to improve the condition of their barren lands and make them cultivable.

Motivated by the field staff of FNGO, farmers in the village came forward and opted for Soya bean cultivation in the area adopting cluster approach. The project provided them 60 Kgs. of Soya bean seeds to be planted under cluster farming in the area. The efforts have yielded good results and farmers have reaped a good harvest of Soya bean in their otherwise barren land. Inspired by the good results of a rich Soya bean harvest, there has emerged a spirit competition and several farmers have come forward to adopt cluster farming approach for cultivation of Soya bean in the area. Various groups have been formed and the farmers are waiting for the sowing season and distribution of seeds by the project so that they can adopt cluster farming approach.

Seeing the good response of farmers, there seems to be a good scope for cluster farming and the same is going to have far reaching affect on the agriculture in the area on the positive side. One of the group members stated- "Yeh parvatiya gaon ki kheti k liye subh sanket hai. Is se palayan k karan khaali padi banjar bhoomi par bhi fasal ugai ja sakti hai thata aur palayan rokne mai bhi madad milegi."

Poly House

Village Paatal Goonth of Kathuli Gram Panchayat in Patisain Unit of Pauri Division although situated on main Satpuli- Kotdwar Highway is devoid of proper source of livelihood for the villagers. Even the agriculture is not very lucrative. Being a project village, the villagers were motivated by the field staff to adopt advanced techniques of cultivation through the project. One Smt. Arti Devi was also contacted by the field staff of the FNGO to come forward and do something innovative in the field of agriculture. Arti Devi was not ready to adopt the change and showed her reluctance in adopting new techniques in agriculture. Moreover, she also informed the field workers that she had been doing farming for past several years and does not know how to do something innovative in her field.

Under the project there was a scheme to take the villagers on exposure visits to show them the success stories achieved in other villages of the country. Arti Devi was offered to come forward for the exposure visit. Unwillingly she agreed and fortunately got a chance to go on exposure visit to Rudraprayag and Himachal Pradesh to see the techniques of Poly House farming such as Line Sowing of vegetables and nursery plantation.

Arti Devi made up her mind and came forward to establish a Poly House on her land. She was provided Poly House and improved varieties of vegetable seeds of Brinjal, Cabbage, Capsicum, Chilly, Tomato, etc. Besides this, pesticides and pumping set was also provided to her by the project with the help of which she was able to protect her crop which had been infested by insects.

Efforts of Arti Devi have begun to bear fruits. She is able to make a good living by selling the vegetables. Recently, she has purchased a scooter for her son on instalment basis which she is able to pay back through regular income she makes by selling her farm produce.

Encouraged by the initiative of Arti Devi five other women of the village have come forward and formed "Jai Jwalpa Devi" Farmer Interest Group under the leadership of Arti Devi.

High Value Agriculture

Haldwadi is one of the seven Gram Panchayats under Bhidalna Micro Watershed in Thanu Unit of PMU Division Raipur and is situated 15 Kms. from Thanu and is 2 Kms from the road head. Traditional agriculture is the only means of livelihood for the 52 families of revenue village Haldwadi. Due to poor farm produce, the people of the village have been discouraged from agriculture and are looking for other means of livelihood.

With the initiation of Gramya Phase II, the villagers were informed by the field workers of the FNGO regarding objectives of the project as also about latest techniques and improved high value pea seeds (PS 1100).

Motivated by field staff of the FNGO, 25 farmers of the Gram Panchayat came forward for presentation of PS 1100 variety of peas. Proper training on high value seeds and production against disease and pest was provided to the beneficiaries. Besides this, several farming processes such as field preparation, soil testing, undergrowth management, line sowing, etc. were conducted on the farmland of the beneficiary farmers.

The Demonstration was very successful and encouraging and yielded about 266 Quintals of Peas which was sold in Dehradun Mand, thus fetching them a sale value of Rs. 4,00,500/- and earning a profit of Rs. 3,00,500/-.

Falguni Beans

Two Farmer interest Groups were formed in the revenue villages Nahikalan and Tangoligad of Thanu Unit in PMU Division Raipur falling under Bhidalana micro watershed. Agriculture has been the main source of livelihood in these two villages but the same was only limited up to fulfilment of farmers' own domestic needs and the main traditional crops grown were Paddy, Wheat, Ginger, Turmeric, Potato, etc. As a result of this, the farmers were not able to earn any cash for their other economic needs.

With the introduction of Gramya Phase II in the villages, extensive rounds of motivation and training were conducted with the farmers to encourage them to venture into cultivating cash crops also. Besides the traditional crops presently cultivated by them. The farmers were given technical knowhow on cultivating improved varieties of vegetable crops as also on protection of their crops against various diseases and pests. Several farming processes such as field preparation, soil testing, undergrowth management, line sowing, etc. were also conducted on the farmland of the beneficiary farmer's.

The demonstration was conducted on 0.10 Hectares of land with 24 Kgs. of Falguni Beans seeds. So far the fields have yielded approximately 30 Quintals of beans valued at Rs. 1,28,000/- thus fetching a profit of Rs. 1,16,000/- and the production is still on.

Poly House

Gharada is a remote village in Jaunpur Block of Tehri District. Agriculture and animal rearing forms the main source of livelihood for the people in this village. On initiation of the project in this area, the objectives of Gramya II were disseminated among the villagers and, as a result, one of the villagers Mr. Narain Datt was chosen as a beneficiary for grant of Poly House under the project. Mr. Narain Datt comes from backward class and has a large family of 4 sons and 2 daughters to support, besides himself and his wife. This had put him into a poor economic state. The only source of livelihood for him was a little bit of agricultural yield and the income that he could generate from running an eating joint in Badkot. This was not enough to provide him and his family two square meal and other daily requirements besides schooling of his children.

With aid from the project, Mr. Narain Datt has put up a Poly House in his land where he grows vegetable seedlings and the saplings are then transplanted on his agricultural land around his Poly House. The efforts have begun to bear fruits and Mr. Narain Datt is using the vegetables grown in his land in the dhabha run by him in Badkot. A happy Narain Datt stated – "Ab mujhe hotel k liye bazaar se sabji nahi khareedni padti. Jis sabji ka bhaaw bazaar mai 40-50/Kg hai wo mujhe khet se muft mil jaati hai jis se meri aamdani mai kaafi badhootri hui hai aur parivaar bhi khushaal hai."

He expresses his sincere gratitude to the Gramya Project.

Animal Shelter

Village Parogi of GP Bel in Kempty Unit of Tehri Division Thatyur is a remote village with people having agriculture and animal rearing as the main source of livelihood. Ms. Vishla Devi of this village is a deprived woman who has two children whom she has brought up all by herself as a single mother. Ms. Vishla narrates; her husband had left her about 13 years back when she was pregnant with her second child and her elder son was only 7 years of age. Her husband has since not returned and she has single handedly supported her two children and also arranged for their bread, butter and education.

Since Ms. Vishla Devi comes from weaker section of the society, she was several times persuaded by the field staff of FNGO to attend project meetings that were regularly held in the village. After several reminders, she attended the meeting and was selected as a project beneficiary. On the choice of Ms. Vishla Devi, she was provided with animal shelter as she had two goats but in want of her own animal shelter she had to keep her animal in others shed which was a regular problem for her. After having her own animal shelter, she has also brought a cow and two more goats which she exclaims will add to her income and help in improving her living standard.

Ms. Vishla Devi had all the praise for Gramya project and states- "Mai pariyojana k liye bahut achchhi soch rakhti hoo. Is ki sabse acchi baat yeh hai ki yeh gareeb aadmi ko dhyaan mai rakh kar pehle usi ki madad karte hai tatha uski jarurat poori karte hai."

This poem has been composed by Ms. Reena Devi one of our village motivator of village Mewa, Gram Panchayat Masmauli in Kandalinadi Unit of Pauri Division. The poem is composed with a view to motivate the project beneficiaries to take active participation in the project activities by focusing on saving water and other natural resources so that their lives become easier. The poem focuses on the main project components and their dependence on water.

पानी जीवन का आधार

अगर इस दुनिया में ना होता जल,
तो ये दुनिया कब की जाती जल।
करे इस धरती पर उपकारी काम,
पुण्य मिलेगा आपको, जीवों को आराम।

पानी से ही बना शरीर,
पंचतत्वों में हैं नीर।
पानी है भगवान का वरदान,
कभी ना करे इसे बर्बाद।

पानी आता है सबके काम,
सबको देता है आराम।
पानी से तो प्यास बुझेगी,
पानी नहीं तो धरती कहां बचेगी।
जब जल बरसा तब सभी रहे थे सो,
करा नहीं जलग्रहण बाद पछताये क्या हो।

पानी ऐसा नाम,
कर देता है जो हर काम।
खाल-चाल बनाकर पानी बचाये,
पानी को ना व्यर्थ बहाए।

पानी को बादल बरसाता,
जीवों का मन भर जाता।
पानी को सब लोग बचाये,
बंजर भूमि को हरा बनाये।

पानी से सबका पक्का नाता,
पानी है जीवनदाता।
पानी बिना न होते हम,
फिर क्यों पानी को खोते हैं हम?

पानी धरती का अमूल्य धन,
बिन पानी के हम निर्धन।
पानी का भण्डार जहां,
हरा भरा संसार वहां।

Vulnerable Individual Beneficiary

Chapnu a revenue village of Gram Panchayat Panjiya is situated at a distance of around 500 mts from Sahiya township. Mr. Atar Singh who is a resident of Chapnu was motivated by the field staff of FNGO to attend open discussion meetings that are held in the village. Mr. Atar Singh is a poor person who made his living by working as a farm labourer in the fields of other farmers of the area. He was undergoing various hardships as it is very difficult in this area to find wage employment on regular basis. On the basis of wealth ranking conducted during PRA, Mr. Atar Singh was selected by the villagers in the open meeting of the village as Vulnerable Individual eligible for a grant of Rs. 30,000/- towards establishing his livelihood activity.

Mr. Atar Singh opted for opening a provision store in the area. The main problem in setting up the provision store was a shop which Mr. Atar Singh did not have. However, he was able to find a road side abandoned building lying in a dilapidated condition. He took the initiative to repair the building and converted it into a provision store with the aid of Rs. 30,000/- provided to him under the project. This has changed his life and he is now able to earn upto Rs. 4,000/- per month through this provision store. Mr. Atar Singh confessed that he has been able to make a profit of around Rs. 40,000/- from the shop for the period June 2015 to March 2016.

Women Farmer Interest Group

In revenue village Kabra Akra under Gram Panchayat Molthi Talli of Pauri Division a Women FIG was formed christened as "Jai Maa Nanda". The idea behind the formation was generated by the project staff in Mahila Aam Sabha held in the village. The women FIG formed consists of 5 women (3 SC and 2 General Category) who initially deposited Rs. 20/-each per month as their contribution towards the group.

In the initial phase, the group in coordination with the project staff made sincere efforts on barren land by cutting shrubs and making it suitable for cultivation. Thereafter, turmeric and ginger was grown on it which acted as a prominent factor in motivating women towards adopting participatory approach in the project activities.

Project staff shared information on benefits of women group and provided technical know-how on crop diseases and their treatment. Free Turmeric, Ginger and Potato seeds were distributed to the FIG through the project.

Details of agricultural yield of the group farming done by the FIG was as follows:

SN	Products	Production (in kgs)	Self Consumption (in kgs)	Quantity Sold (in kgs)	Rate per kg (in Rs.)	Total Cost (in Rs.)
1	Ginger	50	20	30	80/-	2400/-
2	Turmeric	20	8	12	180/-	2160/-
3	Potato	300	175	125	20/-	2500/-
Total						7060/-

The group women agreed that although they had been engaged in agriculture work in the past also but Gramya II helped them to come together and work in a group which has given them ample confidence to move forward and work together towards earning their livelihood with participatory approach. They took their turn one by one in taking care of the fields and crops, especially from the harm caused by wild animals in this area. One of the group members stated that no doubt that the crop could not give as much yield as they had expected due to poor monsoon during the year and the land being barren and rain dependent but they are sure that their confidence as well as concerted efforts will go a long way in helping them earn a better livelihood from agriculture as also in recovering their past losses. Another member of the group states that "Kheti to ham pehle bhi karte they lekin Gramya-II ne hame sahi marg dikhaya hai. Unhone hamara haunsla badaya aur fasal ko bechna sikhaya".

Vulnerable Individual Beneficiary

Mr. Mohar Singh, resident of village Vyasbhood was a landless farmer who had been making a living by working in the farms of other farmers and at construction sites when the work was not available in the fields. Yet he was not able to earn a two square meal for his family as it is very difficult in these remote project areas to find a regular wage employment and thus the life is really miserable for the people dependent exclusively on wage employment for their livelihood.

Mr. Mohar Singh was counselled by our field staff and motivated to take part in open discussion meetings held in the village from time to time. Fortunately, Mr. Mohar Singh was identified as Vulnerable Individual and was selected for a grant of Rs. 30,000/- to establish his own source of livelihood in the area. Mr. Atar Singh opted for Dairy Farming and was thus granted Rs. 30,000/- for the purchase of one buffalo. This has brought about a positive change in the life of Mr. Mohar Singh and his family. Today he is able to make an additional earning of Rs. 3,000/- per month by selling the milk. With due support in rearing the animal from his family Mr. Mohar Singh is also able to continue with his old profession of a labourer as and when he can find it.

Mr. Mohar Singh now is a confident and happy man and wants to expand his dairy trade by purchasing more milch animals through the savings that he will be making from the earnings made by selling the milk.

Empowering Women

For their empowerment, it is important that women have their say in all the developmental activities that take place in their area. Participation of women in decision making in all the affairs of the village and family that concern the women folk is the key to their empowerment and has, therefore, been the major focus area of Gramya II and the success of the project solely depends on the degree of women participation in the project activities.

For the purpose of achieving this goal, special emphasis was laid by the FNGO in mobilizing and empowering women to enable them take complete participation in the project activities. The work had not been so easy in the beginning due to several reasons, such as Illiteracy, remoteness of the area, pre engagement of women in household chores and their reluctance to be a part of the decision making process of the developmental activities. Initially, the presence of women in the project meetings had been thin. Project field workers had to make various efforts to ensure that more and more women participate in the project meetings. Women were time and again persuaded to attend the meetings. They were told that this is their own project and especially meant to uplift their lifestyle, ensure their participation and say in the developmental activities of the village and remove drudgery to the maximum extent possible. Repeated persuasions and assertions made a difference and gradually the women participation continued to improve in the project meetings.

As the picture emerges today, women in several project villages have been mobilized to such an extent that Mahila Aam Sabhas record 100 percent participation of women in a number of project villages such as Myunda & Meghad of Myunda GP. Efforts are still on to mobilize other villages where the participation has not reached the expected number. It is hoped that the goal of 100 percent participation by women can be achieved by regular persuasion.

Voluntary Motivator

Reena Devi, motivator of village Mewa GP Masmauli narrates that she was able to disseminate amongst villagers and more particularly amongst women the merits of the project and how the people can benefit out of the project activities. Motivated by the field staff of FNGO, the Gram Pradhan of the village Mr. Sunil Bhadola has himself setup a Polyhouse in the village and is cultivating Tomato, Capsicum, Chillies and Cabbage in the polyhouse whereas in his fields he has sown Potato and French Beans. Not only Mr. Bhadola is a self motivated person but has, at the same time, been a source of inspiration to the village folks more particularly the women.

Last year when some women had come forward to sow Turmeric and French Beans in their barren fields under cluster farming approach Mr. Bhadola became a torch bearer and came forward to help the women in ploughing their dry and barren fields. Taking queue from the initiatives of Mr. Bhadola several other men from the village namely Mr. Kailash Majheda, Mr. Jagdish Prasad and Mr. Netrmani also took their turn to plough their field one after another. This has set a good example of gender equality within the village which is the main focus area of the Gramya-II project.
